

Freshmen Overpower Chavez 22-14 at Bellaire

Here at Bellaire on Friday, September 5, the freshmen Bellaire Cardinals rolled to its second consecutive victory. The Cardinals defeated Chavez 22-14 as the Bellaire defense played a big part in shutting down the Lobos. Leading the defense was Dorian McNeil with a 52 yard interception for a touchdown. James Dean had previously snuffed the Lobo passing game with an interception of his own.

Other defensive standouts included Keith Ewing, Joshua Isaac, Isaiah Stevens, Brian White, and Jordan Glenn. Chris Adams and Darrell Cole led the offensive line as the Cardinals rushed 42 times for 84 yards. Melvin McAdams and Joshua Allen again led all rushers.

Derek Hunicke provided the game-breaking score with an over shoulder pass from Sam Harker and the freshman Cardinals were 2-0.

The freshman Cardinals, coached by Robert Curtis and Nick Stevens, are off to the best start for a Bellaire freshman team in over a decade.
